CHRONO-logy of L.A. Waddell

Who is?

Establishing Waddells credibility and capacity to write on the subject matter. The real Indiana Jones.

Fellow of the Royal Anthropological Institute and Linnean Society, Honorary Correspondent of Indian Archeological Survey, Ex-Professor of Tibetan, London University

Lieutenant Colonel Laurence Austine Waddell,[1] CB, CIE, F.L.S., L.L.D, M.Ch., I.M.S. RAI, F.R.A.S (29 May 1854 – 19 September 1938) was a Scottish explorer, Professor of Tibetan, Professor of Chemistry and Pathology, Indian Army surgeon,[2] collector in Tibet, and amateur archaeologist. Waddell also studied Sumerian and Sanskrit; he made various translations of seals and other inscriptions. His reputation as an Assyriologist gained little to no academic recognition and his books on the history of civilization have caused controversy. Some of his book publications however were popular with the public, and he is regarded by some today to have been a real-life precursor of the fictional character Indiana Jones. [3]

What is?

What is the purpose of knowing the lineage of kings? My belief is that it is imperative to understand the true chronology in order to understand the many theological queries often posed by man. As one digs into the roots it was discovered that the first king, a sumerARYAN king, was deified and it thereafter became the motiv operandi of the kings that followed. The story goes as it has become revealed to me through exhaustive study, that primitive man sought to explain the cosmos, the heavens above and below, but due to their predicated position as our progenitors, still lacked the sophistication of the sciences and technical terminology that would later be coerced into existence via experience. Using the tools, knowledge of their current times, they utilized a personification process available within their lexicon and understanding. This initial attempt at understanding the world around them, later developed into worship, being utilized by those who sought to leverage knowledge for the purpose of control. Since the dawn of civilization the motion of the SUN and the MOON have been the center of our theological perspective. Our realm is polarized, it is the motion between that causes life.⁰ Some examples:

- black / white
- ying / yang
- positive / negative
- black / white
- hot / cold
- good / evil
- feminine/masculine

This is the basis for all motion, hence life. Without motion, there would be no life. Worship of the SUN has been the archetype of good, the worship of the MOON, its opposite; evil.

The first king of the first dynasty as recorded by the Kish Chronicles of the Sumerians worshipped the SUN, the second king; a MOON worshipper. It should be noted here that the biblical chronology is in error, as it was dependent on information from a later dynasty of the Sumerians, the Isin Dynasty, which is notorious for willful obfuscation of record, what I like to call the first lie around 2232 B.C. It should be noted that the kings on the lists had several names, both lunar/solar names, and names from the different languages around at the time. This added to the confusion and ease of manipulation of the names, to assure that the truth would stay within the hands of the privy.

VI.

Where is?

Before the "Hamitic"¹ Hebrews (Moshe/Moses), before Islam and its prophet, before Christianity and the saviour, was the human worship of the Sun and Moon, one could go as far as call them cults. It is said that the first king, was the first Christ, since like in the story of Yashua/Jesus, he was deified after death. It would not be a stretch of imagination to claim they were revered as living God during their reign, having the status and realm wide power of Europe, Asia Minor, (Eurasia) Indus Valley, Mesopotamia, extending into Egypt/Africa^{}. As indicative of the pyramids of mesoamerica, it is likely branches extended into the American continent at some point in the ancient timeline. This was not speculated on in the book, but one could see how it is entirely possible. A golden nugget of nectar for you, the first king of the Egyptian dynasties, Menes, aka Manis- Tissu, aka Asa-Manja, aka Osiris, aka Mizraim died in his ripe old age from the sting of a hornet in Ireland!² other way could he have learnt such a fable. *

Herodotus, in Book ii. c. 141, refers to the defeat of the Assyrians under Sennacherib, related in 2 Kings xix. 9, where Tirbakah is named as King of Egypt or Ethiopia (which name, I believe, was often applied to Egypt), as having happened under Sethos. This, however, could not be the Sethos of the nineteenth dynasty, father of the king who was drowned in the Exodus, even if there was a Sethos reigning at the time of Sennacherib.

One must set aside the several versions of the biblical human timeline, as it was never the goal of the Hebrews to bring mankind to salvation, rather, to submission. This is undisputable at this point thanks to several millenia of evidential lineage. Would you be surprised if I told you eventually the priests of kings, attempted to usurp power from the true inheritors, succeeding by 2232 B.C. with the Isin Dynasty and their fabricated and erroneous timelines (Semitization of history). The priesthood class of rulers was born, and would now be at never ending war for control during the ensuing dynasties to the present day. Honestly, its just that basic. We have been told so many tales, so many lies, everything but the truth, hence if you are reading this it will no doubt resonate with you as the truth derived from the study of prima facie evidence, and stands as provenance over later documents of usurpers. The truth friends, is a hard pill to swallow.

VII.

Who is?

All these mythologies of the ancient Sumerians, Nordic Eddas, Indian Vedas, Greeks, Egyptians all refer to the same very real person/s starting with the first king, known by many names, Dur, Dan, Thor, Adam, Indra, Zeus, St. George, Art-hur, all one person, the first dynastic king as written in the original Kish Chronicle of the SumerARYANS. The second king³, aka Cain, (also known by a dozen or so names and titles Baccus, Nimrod et al) progenitor of evil (MOON worship), likely inherited his lovely position from the already established behaviors of the people before the first dynasty (3378 B.C.) of the Sumerians. Unfortunately, the story of Cain and Abel as we know it, just a conjured fable to direct attention away from the truth for the purpose of control. Believe what we tell you to believe, and you will never know the truth. Sorry, "occultists", your days of control via deception to the masses are coming to an end. Armed with the information contained herein, the reader can now continue the study into the many disciplines and prerequisites to attaining the very gnosis required for an existence based in truth. Dissolution of the lies is at hand brothers and sisters, we will be fooled no more.

It should be noted that kings of later dynasties often took on the names of the intial kings, further adding to the confusion of the correct chronology of kings, keeping the masses in a state of confusion, easier to manipulate, and thereby leverage.

Waddell used the uninterrupted and complete indian king list to validate and fill in the missing links of the Sumerian king list, something that no Assyrologist has done previous to or since. Keep in mind that the indian king list [indian chronicles] is just the sanscript version of the Sumerian king list, a connection that Waddell flawlessly explained and indicated with ease as the names were too similar to be by accident. This is the key here to Waddells work, and what seperated him from previous and future Assyrologists whom had no back drop to work from, and as we know fell victim to those who came to control the academics of the world. As is the case in all investigations, follow the money and you will find the culprit (the revisionist).

VIII.

Why is?

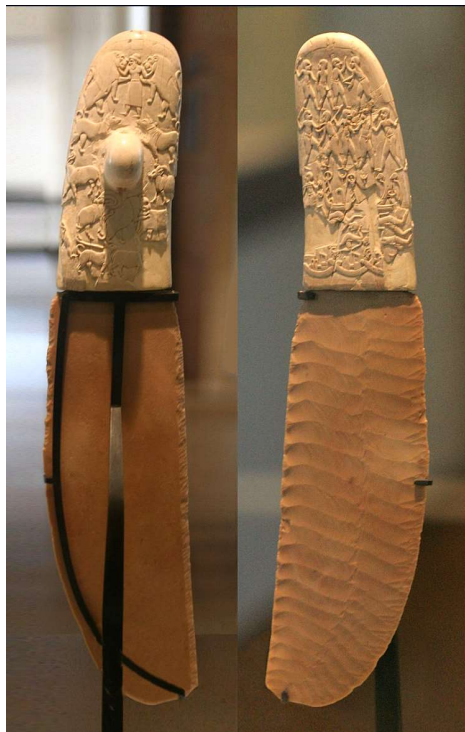

The lies started early on and continued as a means to control and separate people so that few could benefit from the labor of many. Does that sound familiar to you? Yes, indeed. Truth does not require belief, it is entirely self evident. If one was to seek out this information today, online, one would only find the mis-information available post the many revisions of people not friendly to the benefit of the human condition. By 1948, all truth had been scrubbed, and the victors would yet again continue the rewriting of history via their many tentacles of control. You will not be taught this in college or university course, public school, archive, or person. I once met an Egyptian man who told me that nothing of the truth can ever be found, but I did not give up, as I knew that the resources this man had were not as vast as those at the finger tips of this vigilant researcher. He told me that the lies went back as far as around 900 B.C. with the MOON cult attaining control and immediate scrubbing of true lineage. As you can see, the evidence goes back even further. But knowing the first lie, we can start taking it apart piece by piece. Unfortunately, this abstract will not be covering my earlier studies which included deep insight into the occult⁴, and will be left for the readers interpretation and queries.

PORTRAIT OF FIRST ARYAN OR SUMERIAN KING DUR OR THOR, c. 3380 B.C.

On carved ivory handle of stone knife from Cappadocia, found in Egypt, of predynastic age. Note the king, in Gothic dress and horned hat with his Goats (Goths), is taming (civilizing) the Phrygians (of Asia Minor) and Urs (of Chaldea), represented by their totem animals (lion and wolf), and on reverse in human form. The shaggy-maned lions are of palaeartic type and the prick eared wolves are collared.

The " Real" Holy Grail

The holy grail, is in fact a bowl that had inscribed on it the Sumerian Dynasty king list. Armed with the information of our progenitors one could dispell the lies propagated by those who have used lies to deceive humanity into the various religous cults throughout history into present day. In essence it is the key to everlasting life, because it prevents the victimization of man from religion. It helps to understand that energy cannot be destroyed (as proven by modern physics) only transmuted, transferred but never destroyed. Your soul, your sub-conscious, that has everlasting life, constantly reincarnating here on earth (heart being an anagram; see my blog on lexical word games). Interstingly, the link in Hollywood with Indiana Jones and the Holy Grail should help you understand where this story comes from, as it was Waddell who discovered it in Nippur under the sun temple. They mock us and have mocked us, keeping us from the truth by inverting it and turning it into myth and fables.

Conclusion

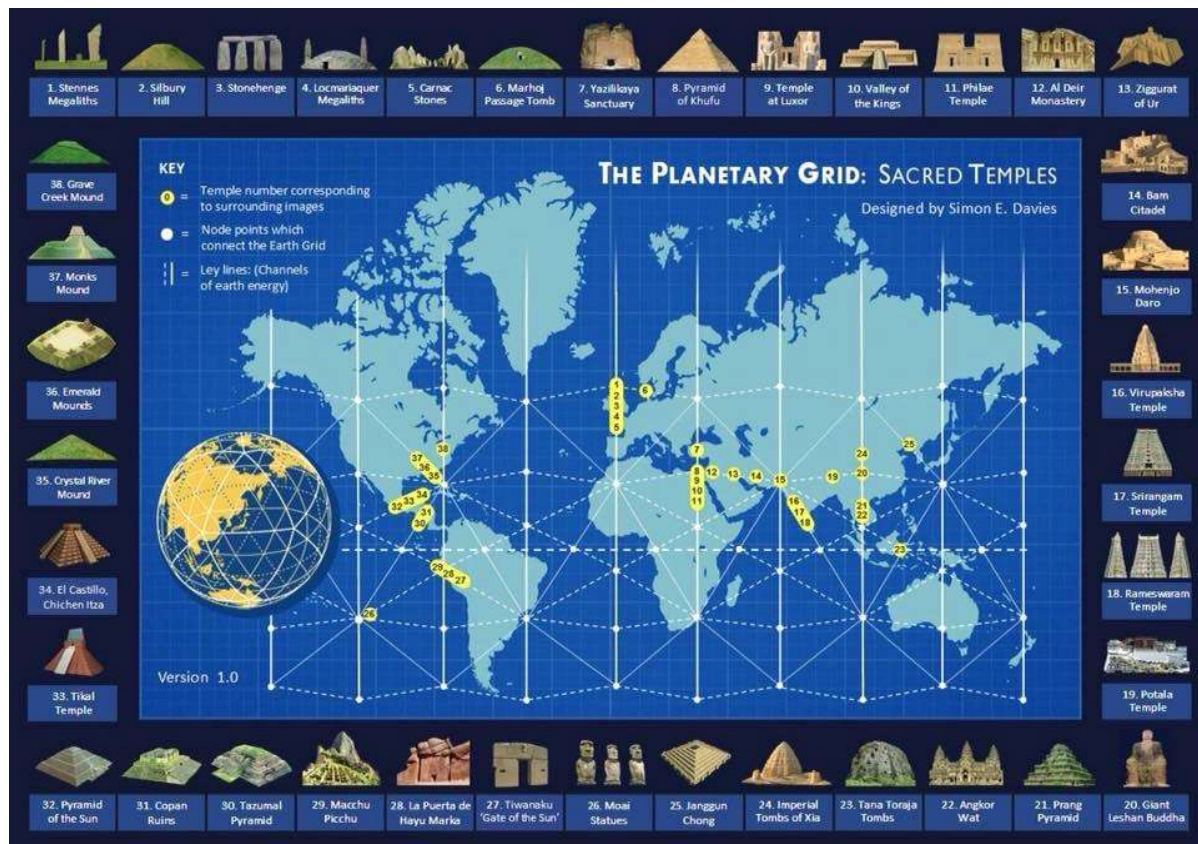

This short and concise document ties so many lies into one simple line of truth. Once you see how they trick us, and how we are all connected, how we are all one big family that has been taught division for the purpose of conquest, you cannot unsee it. These aryan civilization builders sailed around the realm teaching their knowledge to indigenous populations world wide early in the course of history, giving all types of man the fruits of its labors. This happened thousands of years before the explorers which have been credited for these discoveries. The rehashed half truths and false dichotomies created to subvert our reality have caused wars, countless deaths. Once you wake up from the control matrix imposed by this priest class* on humanity, you can relinquish the chains which bind your mind to their defacto control structure. The sooner we kick their RE-LIEgion (re hashed lies in regions) to the curb, the sooner we can get back on track, back on top of the food chain. This means all of us, irrespective of your origin, irrespective of your color, gender, or status. The truth belongs to all of humanity, the truth will set us free. This is your master key, use it to unlock your potential and realize your dreams.

Sargon Conquers "Four Corners of the World"

If Mizraim is Menes, and Menes was Sargons son then, Sargon = Ham (Hamites);
Also, see biblical Table of Nations.

SARGON'S CONQUESTS IN THE WESTERN OLD WORLD TO THE TIN-MINES (? OF BRITAIN) BEYOND THE WESTERN SEA OR MEDITERRANEAN

We have seen that "Sargon" in his inscriptions at Nippur claims that: "Unto King Gin, king of the Land (or Earth), Lord Sakh gave no foe from the Upper Sea [Mediterranean] unto the Lower Sea [Persian Gulf and Indian Ocean], Lord Sakh . . . subjected the lands to him." And the Omen version of his Chronicles states: "King Gin who marched against the Land of the West, and conquered the Land of the West, his hand subdued the Four Quarters of the World." ¹

Lord Sagara (Sargon, Ham) - Fire Weapon

Sagara is reputed to have vanquished his enemies and recovered his patrimonial kingdom. It was possibly a kind of "Greek fire," and fire-missiles are referred to in the Gothic Eddas. The use of a fire-weapon by "Sargon" seems to be actually referred to in one of the cuneiform tablets on his war with the usurper Zaggisi, see below.

Authors Note

Read the effin' book! This is just a small taste of what it can unlock for you. Read all the books in my various online libraries, so that you can be a part of the action of removing power from those who want to take it from you. By our enemies own words, only action can stop them, no amount of information.⁵ You don't have to agree with the information, but you should at minimum take the time to read it.

¹ Biblically speaking, Ham was the son of Noah, whom we now know to have been the flood hero of the late Chaldean and Babylonian legends; Xisouthr-os, Xasi-wadra, (Isin "Antidiluvians") Baratutu, Ziusudu, or as labeled in the modern wiki era' Ziusudra. All are from a corrupt version, as the real Noah was actually Enoch, the 3rd king of the second Sumerian Dynasty 3336 B.C. - 3273 B.C. My apologies for being the bearer of bad news to the fantasies they have imagined for us. It should be noted that by the account of the Talmud of the Jews, Hams skin was smitten black by God on the account that he trespassed on the lords command to forgo forenication on the ark as indicated in the Talmuds Sanhedrin 108b¹⁵. This basically is used as the premise for Jews to subjugate dark skinned races to various forms of racism. Correcting this myth is beyond the scope of this document but if we were to correct the error, Ham is Sargon, the semitic name of Shar - Guni, Sagara, Erech Dynasty king of the King List 2725 B.C. - 2671 B.C. father of Menes the first dynastic king of the Egyptian kings. The semitization of history was started by the priests of the later Isin Dynasty. That's right, kiss that table of nations bible story goodbye. The characters of the Hebrew epics were real people, but obviously not as told by the moon cult worshipping Jews.

It thus appears that the Land of Urani in "The Land of the End of the Sunset" in the Far West, to which Menes penetrated in ships and where he met his tragic death through the sting of a Wasp or Hornet was Erin, the furthest West land of Europe (excluding Iceland or Ultima Thule, then doubtless unknown); and that his tomb survives on the top of Knock-Many or "The Hill of Many" in County Tyrone, in which the name Many seems to preserve the name of that great Aryan "world-emperor" and famous admiral Mena or Manj down to the present day. occult science. The occultists have been a race apart from an earlier period than we can fathom—not a separate race physically, not a uniform race physically at all, nor a nation in any sense of the word, but a continuous association of men of the highest intelligence linked together by a bond stronger than any other tie of which mankind has experience, and carrying on with a perfect continuity of purpose the studies and traditions and mysteries of self-development handed down to them by their predecessors. All this time the stream of civilization, on the foremost waves of which the culture of modern Europe is floating, has been wholly and absolutely neglectful of the one study with which the occultists have been solely engaged. What wonder that the two lines of civilization have diverged so far apart that their forms are now entirely unlike each other. It remains to be
